

Concept les couleurs

Rule 1 - the colours in french are divided into masculine and feminine categories . The way we do them in hindi .

Rule 2 - the masculine colours are changed to feminine only by adding an ** e ** in them

For example :

Vert - masculine , verte - feminine

Roug - masculine, rouge - feminine

Rule 3 - the adjectives of colours is always put after the noun . In contrast to others like adjectives , are already done with être

For example:

- Jaipur , the pink city - jaipur , la ville rose
- It's a red table - c'est une table rouge

Rule 4 - when the verb if être is used to denote the colour then this rule is not applicable . But the gender rule is always be applied.

For example :

- My car is green - ma voiture est verte
- This table is brown - cette table est brune

Rule 5 - the plurals of the colours made by adding ' s ' to them

For example :

- Some green pens - des stylos verts
- Some green vegetables- des legumes vertes

Rule 6 - the colours in french exist in 4 different forms .

A ) singular- masculine

Ex- a green pen - un stylo vert

Singular- feminine

Ex - a green vegetable - une légume verte

B) plural - masculine

Ex - some green pens- des stylos verts

Plural- feminine

Ex - some green vegetables- des légumes vertes

Rule 7 - the colours orange and blue acts as both singular and plurals .

Ex-

- une voiture orange- des voitures orangé
- Une voiture maroon - des voitures marron
