Horloge

Rule1 - for the word hour in English we use *heure* (अर) in french and is abbreviated as *h*.

Rule2- the french clock starts at 12am and ends at same.

Rule3 - we have the 24 hour clock system in french i.e there is no am pm.

Rule4 - we use il est ( इले ) for the time .

Ex - 1 am = il est une heure

2 am = il est deux heures

3 am = il est trois heures.

4 am = il est quatre heures

10 am- il est dix heures

12 pm = il est douze heures

1pm = il est treize heures

5pm = il est dix-sept heures

7pm = il est dix-neuf heures

12am= il est vingt vingt-quatre heures

Rule 5 - for minutes we have simple rule of simple writting the counting after that

Ex- 2-20 pm = il est quatorze heures vingt (14-20)

9-05 am = il est neuf heures cing (09-05)

6-23pm = il est dix-huit heures vingt-trois (18-23)

Rule 6 - there is zone more rule for the minutes that is applicable only for three numbers i.e 15, 30, 45

15 - et quart (ए कार्त)

30 - et demie (ए दमी)

45 - moins le quart ( मुआं ल कार्त)

Ex- 3:15 am = il est trois heures quinze / trois heures et quart

3:30 pm = quinze heures trente / quinze heures et demie

3:45pm = guinze heures guarante cing / guinze heures moins le guart.
